Re: United States v. Ruben Mora
07 Cr. 967 (DLC)

Dear Judge Cote:

I write on behalf of my client, Ruben Mora, to request a modification of his bail conditions to allow him to travel to College Station, Pennsylvania, to visit his children Ruby and Xavier from September 5 until September 8. Mr. Mora is scheduled to be sentenced by the Court on September 26, 2008.

If permitted to travel, Mr. Mora will take the bus from New York to College Station. He will stay at with his children while he is there. He would leave on Friday, September 5 and return on Monday morning, September 8. He will comply with any travel related reporting requests of his pretrial services officer.

I have spoken with Assistant United States Attorneys Steve Kwok and Randall Jackson with respect to this request and they have informed me that the government has no objection.

Honorable Denise L. Cote
United States District Judge
